CVR/IT Consulting LLC announces additions to its Project Management Curriculum

Starting immediately, the company has more than doubled its available courseware to include over 60 courses and workshops in the fields of Project Management, Project Portfolio Management, Leadership and Business Analysis.

CVR/IT Consulting LLC, a Raleigh/Durham, NC based Project Management services and training company, announced today that it has expanded its Project Management curriculum to include over 60 courses and workshops. The curriculum now includes training for Executives and Managers, Project Managers and Project Teams at all levels from introductory to advanced. The curriculum is designed to link all aspects of project selection, planning and execution with fulfillment of Business Strategy. The price of all courses and workshops has been restructured, making this curriculum one the most cost-effective training options available today. All training is now available for onsite delivery. In addition, the curriculum may be licensed by qualified training organizations.

Mastery of Project Management and related project disciplines is fast becoming the most widely sought key to success in many top industries today. Dr. Gary J. Evans, Managing Principal of the company, brings over two decades of project management experience to his course development and training activities. He has built the company around his experience with programs and methodologies proven to help businesses obtain maximum value from every project investment.

The company's full line of courseware is available starting in early 2009.
